

WESTCONGRESS NOW ACCEPTING SUBMISSIONS FOR NEW CYBER LIABILITY PRODUCT

WestCongress is pleased to announce the rollout of a new Cyber Liability Product. Led by industry veteran Bill McLaughlin, the professionals at WestCongress are here to help you prepare and protect your clients from the financial and reputational risks that can arise from data breaches and other cyber attacks.

With coverage provided by Lloyd's of London and utilizing the top breach response professionals in the industry, we are targeting small to mid-sized organizations across a broad range of industries.

We are now accepting submissions for Cyber Liability coverage through our regular submissions email (submissions@westcongress.com).

For more information about the WestCongress Cyber Liability coverage, please see the attached information sheet. If you would like to discuss this product or expansion of your appointment to include Cyber Liability, please feel free to contact Bill McLaughlin by phone at 516.314.5659 or by email at wmclaughlin@westcongress.com.
